

Please begin a systematic review of communication tower bird mortality issues and institute a research program to identify tower placement, design and lighting that results in bird mortalities. Please undertake environmental reviews of existing towers to assess their placement and design with regard to impact on migratory birds. Please require that all proposed towers be subjected to rigorous environmental reviews. Please implement immediate protections based on existing knowledge to reduce the bird mortalities caused by communication towers.